INTRODUCTION

For the fifth year in a row, Green 2.0—an independent 501(c)(3) campaign to increase racial and ethnic diversity within the environmental movement—presents data on diversity in staff from non-profit organizations (“NGOs”) and data on diversity in grantmaking from foundations. The 2021 report card reflects data collected from NGOs on: a) the number of people of color (POC) on their full-time staff, boards, senior staff, and heads of organizations b) staff retention rates, and c) diversity, equity, and inclusion practices. The data on foundations was collected from a cadre of foundations and focuses on grantmaking and how funds are being directed toward communities of color.

2021 was the first year Green 2.0 requested that 80 NGOs provide their data (previously, 40 NGOs were asked to submit). Unfortunately, 19 of those organizations did not contribute, with 61 out of 80 invited NGOs participating. However, six NGOs opted-in to the report card this year, bringing the total number of NGOs represented in the data to 67. In 2021, there are also several new components of the NGO report card including a detailed breakdown of racial and ethnic demographics, data on heads of organizations, retention rates of staff, and data on diversity, equity, and inclusion practices of individual NGOs.

Green 2.0 requested data from over 30 foundations and received data from 20. This year, with the changes in reporting and in an attempt to obtain more data, foundations were asked to submit their data anonymously. While more foundations submitted their data than in years before, transparency in this sector continues to be a priority for Green 2.0.

Data in this report card reflects information submitted directly by NGOs and foundations for the period of January 1, 2020-December 31, 2020. The full report shows individual data for NGOs and aggregated data for foundations.

<sup>1</sup> For the purpose of this report, Green 2.0 uses the terms “non-profit organizations” and “non-governmental organizations (NGOs)” interchangeably, notwithstanding there are some minor differences between the two categories.

NGO ANALYSIS

This year, Green 2.0 partnered with Dr. Chandler Puritty, Adjunct Professor at University of California San Diego. Dr. Puritty analyzed data sets submitted to Green 2.0 and captured trends for NGOs from their self-reported data from 2017-2021. Given there was no previous data, Dr. Puritty analyzed data for all new categories only from 2021. She examined the change in racial and ethnic diversity over time in boards, full-time staff, and senior staff of NGOs.

This year indicates measurable increases in people of color on full-time staff, among senior staff and on the boards of NGOs:

FULL-TIME STAFF: On average, reporting organizations added 12 people of color between 2017 and 2021.

SENIOR STAFF: On average, reporting organizations added three people of color between 2017 and 2021.

BOARD MEMBERS: On average, reporting organizations added three people of color between 2017 and 2021.

The 2021 report shows progress in racial and ethnic diversity data, although we should note that we are including data from 17 more NGOs this year.

NGO FULL-TIME STAFF

Dr. Puritty examined the change in the number of full-time staff who identified as people of color from 2017 to 2021. She also examined trends specifically in the data for 2021.

FULL-TIME STAFF

POC FULL-TIME
STAFF %

MEAN POC FULL-TIME STAFF

MEAN POC %

Diversity of full-time staff has increased over the past five years ( $n=27$ ,  $p<0.001$ ,  $R=0.05$ ). In 2017, there was an average of 75 POC on full-time staff. That number decreased to 62 in 2018, increased to 73 in 2019, increased to 81 in 2020 and increased to 88 in 2021. For POC senior staff, from 2017-2018, there was a 17.9% decrease, from 2018-2019, an 18.8% increase, from 2019-2020, an 11.1% increase, and from 2020-2021, an 8% increase.

NGO FULL-TIME STAFF

2021 DEMOGRAPHIC DATA OF FULL-TIME STAFF

Full-time staff for NGOs remain predominately White (60%), Black staff (10.8%) and Hispanic/Latinx/Chicanx staff (10%) are the most represented POC groups although both fall below national demographic baselines. American Indian or Alaska Native staff (0.5%), Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander staff (0.3%) and Middle Eastern or North African (0.3%) are the least represented on staff of participating NGOs.

NGO HEADS OF ORGANIZATIONS

This is the first year Green 2.0 collected information about heads of organizations. 25.3% of heads of organizations are people of color, 73.1% are White, and 1.5% did not respond.

2021 DEMOGRAPHIC DATA OF HEADS OF ORGANIZATIONS

DETAILED RACIAL AND ETHNIC DATA OF HEADS OF ORGANIZATIONS

Heads of NGOs were predominately White (73.1%). Asian (10.4%) and Black (7.5%) heads of NGOs were the most first and second highest POC groups. There were no Native or Indigenous heads of NGOs in this analysis. Given that this is the first year this data was collected, Green 2.0 will analyze trends in progress of heads of organizations going forward.

NGO SENIOR STAFF

Dr. Puritty examined trends of POC senior staff at NGOs from 2017-2021.

Diversity of senior staff has been increasing over the past five years ( $n=20$ ,  $p<0.001$ ,  $R=0.09$ ). The trends of 2021 seem to be driving this change. Between years, the increase in POC was not significant until 2020-2021 ( $p=0.008$ ). From 2017-2018, there was a 12.5% decrease, from 2018-2019, a 5.8% increase, from 2019-2020, a 33.7% increase, and from 2020-2021, a 25.2% increase in POC senior staff.

NGO BOARD MEMBERS

Dr. Puritty examined trends of POC board members at NGOs from 2017-2021.

BOARD MEMBERS

Diversity of board members has been increasing over the past five years ( $n=20$ ,  $p<0.001$ ,  $R^2=0.19$ ). The trends of 2021 seem to be driving this change. Between years, the increase in POC was not significant until 2020-2021 ( $p=0.047$ ). From 2017-2018, there was a 12.5% increase, from 2018-2019, an 18% increase, from 2019-2020, a 12% increase, and from 2020-2021, a 28% increase in POC board members.

LARGE AND SMALL NGO TRENDS

Dr. Puritty examined the trends of POC full-time staff at large NGOs (more than 50 full-time employees) compared to small NGOs (less than 50 full-time employees) from 2017-2021.

LARGE AND SMALL NGO TRENDS

POC FULL-TIME
STAFF %

Over time, large organizations have significantly increased their POC full-time staff ( $n=18$ ,  $p<0.001$ ,  $R^2=0.084$ ). Full-time staff at large organizations also significantly increased between 2020 and 2021 ( $p=0.036$ ). When separated from the large organizations, small organizations' increase in POC over time was not significant ( $n=5$ ,  $p=0.023$ ,  $R^2=-0.1$ ) with large organizations widely responsible for the increase in full-time staff of color. However, the proportion of POC full-time staff is higher for small organizations compared to large ones. Although small organizations have a higher proportion of POC staff ( $p=0.009$ ), and both large and small organizations are increasing over time ( $p=0.025$ ) the rate of increase in POC full-time staff between large and small organizations is about the same ( $p=ns$ ).

NGO RETENTION RATES

Dr. Puritty examined average annual White compared with POC retention rates among full-time staff. The retention rate was calculated by dividing the number of staff on the last day of a given period (quarterly, annually, etc.) by the number present on the first day and multiplying by 100. The NGOs reported retention rates from January 1, 2020-December 31, 2020.

Retention rates of all staff were not significantly different ( $p=0.132$ ) between POC staff (90.8%) and White staff (92.4%).

NGO ONBOARDING PRACTICES

Dr. Puritty examined NGO onboarding activities. Organizations selected from a drop-down bar which of the following they provide:

- Scheduled check-ins for staff
- Organizational acclimation programs
- Goal-setting protocols
- Relationship-building activities
- DEI training for staff

The findings indicate that NGOs have done work to retain POC staff during the onboarding process. Of the 67 NGOs that reported on their retention practices, 92.5% have scheduled check-ins for staff, 88.1% have organizational acclimation programs, 76.1% have goal-setting protocols, and 74.6% have relationship-building activities. These retention efforts are likely to increase retention for both POC and White staff.

The largest area for improvement in diversity and equity practices would be DEI training for staff, only 61.2% of organizations have prioritized this. Four organizations (6%) mentioned that they are working on creating DEI training for onboarding. This is an area for improvement for many NGOs.

NGO DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION PRACTICES

Dr. Puritty examined diversity, equity, and inclusion practices of NGOs from a Yes/No/Other survey. Because of an issue with surveying, some NGOs answered “other” instead of “yes” or “no.” The majority of those who answered “other” detailed their organization’s policies and if their answers included “yes” or “no,” their answers were changed from “other” to reflect that. Many of those that remain “other” responded that they were creating that process, policy, or activity.

	DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION PRACTICES	YES	NO	OTHER	N/A
Transparency	Transparent salary pay-scale	57%	27%	16%
	Transparent promotion policy	48%	25%	27%
	Explicit DEI policy	84%	3%	13%
Vision, Mission, Strategic Plans	DEI goals in strategic plans	88%	6%	6%
	Resources to finance DEI efforts	99%	1%	0%
Employee resources, mentorship, and feedback opportunities	Affinity or employee resource groups	63%	28%	9%
	Conduct anonymous employee feedback survey	73%	17%	10%
	Entry-level development opportunities	94%	3%	3%
	Have a place where staff can find additional resources to learn more about DEI	90%	7%	3%
	Conduct implicit bias training	70%	21%	9%
	Mentoring programs for staff	39%	45%	16%
	Have policy that addresses microaggressions or racial discrimination	84%	7%	9%
	Feedback on DEI progress from staff used to adjust and modify efforts	91%	1%	8%
	Organization frequently assesses DEI progress	87%	5%	7%	1%
	Paid Internships	82%	12%	6%

NGOs are most likely to have resources set aside to finance their DEI efforts (99%), use feedback from previous assessments to inform decision-making (91%), and have entry level development opportunities for staff (94%). NGOs are least likely to have mentoring programs for staff (39%), transparent promotion processes (48%), transparent salary pay-scale (57%) and affinity or employee resource groups (63%).

NGO AND FOUNDATION METHODOLOGY

The 2021 Transparency Report Card was analyzed by Dr. Chandler Puritty, Adjunct Professor at University of California San Diego. Dr. Puritty analyzed the data submitted by NGOs over the past five years using general linear mixed models using the lme call in the package nlme. (Pinheiro et al, 2013) and for between year comparisons, she used linear regressions using the lm call in R version 3.2.3 (R Core Development Team 2016). She used information from only the organizations that had submitted data for all five years for trends in POC over time.

For foundations, this was the first year Green 2.0 received data on funding practices; however, very few foundations had this data on hand. These were analyzed by hand as the sample size was too low for full analysis.

Data for the Green 2.0 Transparency Report Cards is voluntarily submitted and self-reported by individual organizations. Organizations submitted data to Green 2.0 directly and if there were any questions about data, they were provided the opportunity to correct or update it. However, not all organizations corrected or updated their data when requested from Green 2.0. Green 2.0 is continually working with reporting organizations to improve the reporting process for greater accuracy and consistency.

CONCLUSION

This year gender analysis was removed from the report. However, in exploratory analysis, it was found that organizations are still overwhelmingly male. As Green 2.0's mission is to increase racial and ethnic diversity in the field, and it was not possible to separate White women from women of color, we focused exclusively on data from people of color.

The data for NGOs shows that POC staff are increasing at participating NGOs at all levels, full-time employees, board members, and senior staff. While the proportions of POC staff are increasing across all levels over time, the average percentage of POC remains around 30% for full-time staff, senior staff, and board members. There were significant increases of POC senior staff and board members between 2020 and 2021. The 2020 resurgence of the Black Lives Matter movement could have impacted the larger numbers of POC seen in senior staff and board member positions.

An important note is that the numbers for POC include over eight different racial and ethnic groups (American Indian or Alaska Native, Asian, Black or African American, Hispanic, Latinx, or Chicanx, Middle Eastern or North African, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, individuals reporting multiple races/ethnicities, individuals reporting another race, ethnicity, or origin not on this list).

This was the first year demographic data for heads of NGOs was collected. It was found that 25.3% of heads of organizations are people of color, 73.1% heads are White, and 1.5% did not respond. This is only one year's data, and it is not yet possible to know if this is a positive trend, but these percentages of POC heads of organizations are similar to the demographic make-up of staff across all levels (full-time staff, senior staff, board members). NGOs are still overwhelmingly White-led and need to make progress in this area to be representative of our nation.

There are positive trends over time for POC staff at NGOs. However, the demographics of the United States are rapidly changing. The next generation (those under 16 in 2019 census) is majority POC, and only 49.1% White. Environmental organizations have increased their POC staff roughly 10% over the last five years (from ~20%~30%) but will need to greatly increase their rate of change (from 30% POC to 50% POC) to keep up with the country's changing demographics.

Do you have a transparent salary pay scale for staff?

no

Given our small size and lack of position duplication.

Do you have a transparent promotion process?

yes

We have a standardized annual self and manager review template and process to review core competencies and individual goals. Salary of each staff member is reviewed annually; COLA and merit adjustments, if any, are considered following that review process around January 1st of each year. Whether an employee receives a salary change is discretionary with the League and will depend upon factors such as the following: The employee's performance, including his or her growth in skill, effort; The ability of the League to support higher salaries in general; How the employee's salary compares to employees in the metropolitan area performing similar work.

Does your organization have a policy explicitly discussing diversity and inclusion?

What would have the most significant impact on my ability to do my best work more often? The employee responses are reviewed by HR, the leadership team, and supervisors. As part of the performance review, supervisors engage in dialogue to understand each employee's perspective to ensure clarity and determine where opportunities exist to enhance the employee experience. The organization commits to career development and internal growth, resulting in several employees being positioned for promotions, advancing to management positions, and career changes from operations to programs. We also pivoted and adjusted to employees' needs collectively and individually during the pandemic providing space to prioritize family, medical, wellness, and personal situations while balancing work commitments. The organization with supervisors and staff took the time to evaluate and prioritize the work commitments that made a difference. Lastly, we completed comprehensive salary benchmark assessments (conducted every three years) on all positions, demonstrating our commitment to equitable pay and taking action to adjust employee compensation to match market adjustments.

Do you have mentoring programs for staff? In a technical sense we do not, however, we encourage our employees to connect with individuals across the sector but we could do more. When new employees are hired, we pair them with a training buddy who essentially supports them throughout onboarding and beyond if they'd like.			other

In addition, we also involve the all levels of the organization from Board members to interns in our efforts to address DEIJ. Lastly, we're bringing in an outside consultant, to help us identify ways to improve our organizational culture to be more inclusive for all backgrounds and people.

FOUNDATIONS ANALYSIS

Dr. Puritty examined the funding practices of surveyed foundations. The survey included questions on the demographic data of board members and senior staff of grantee organizations, and comparison data of funding practices to POC-led compared with White-led foundations. Only two foundations (29%) reported both demographic data of the boards and senior staff of their grantee organizations and their funding practices for White-led compared with POC-led organizations.

NINE FOUNDATIONS REPORTED THAT THEY COLLECT NO DATA

In a concerning finding, nearly half of surveyed foundations reported that they collect no demographic data. Financial inequalities represent a large part of systemic racial inequity, and foundations are directly positioned to address this disparity. Any foundation that is not already collecting demographic data or at least planning to be is at risk of reinforcing or even increasing the gap between POC-led and White-led organizations.

FOUR FOUNDATIONS ARE BUILDING AN ACTIVE PROCESS

Some foundations provided anonymous information on their plans to collect diversity and demographic data going forward. These quotes are directly from those foundations.

While cognizant of which grantees are BIPOC staffed and led, we do not collect and categorize information on board, leadership and staff that would allow us to answer the questions on the survey.

We currently ask whether the organization reports its staff and board demographic information to GuideStar. We are in the process of developing our own set of demographic questions to collect this information directly as part of our application process.

We have collected staff demographic data and are in the process of collecting grantee demographic data. This data will not be available to us until spring 2022. Currently, we do not have counts for senior staff or board members within each grantee organization, so we were unable to complete the survey.

Our foundation does not collect DEI data and we are in the process of discussing how we can collect data without being burdensome or onerous.

RESULTS FOR FOUNDATIONS THAT COLLECT DEMOGRAPHIC DATA

Only two foundations (29%) reported both demographic data of the boards and senior staff of their grantee organizations and their funding practices for White-led versus POC-led organizations.

DEMOGRAPHICS OF BOARDS AND SENIOR STAFF OF GRANTEES

Five organizations (71%) reported the demographic data of the senior staff and board members of their grantees.

BOARD MEMBERS

On average, the reporting foundations found that board members of grantee organizations were 34% POC and 50% White. It is important to note that although POC represent eight different groups of race and ethnicities, this grouping still pales in comparison to the representation of White people. Of these groups, Black or African-American had the highest representation of about 13% of board members while Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander the lowest at less than 1%.

SENIOR STAFF

Senior staff showed a similar spread, with 37% POC and 55% White. Of the POC groups, Black or African-American again were the most represented groups at about 10.6% and Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander again had the lowest at less than 1%.

RESULTS FOR FOUNDATIONS THAT COLLECT FUNDING DATA OF WHITE-LED AND POC-LED GRANTEES

AVERAGE ANNUAL FUNDING

The amount of average annual grantmaking to White-led organizations is much higher than for organizations led by POC. On average foundations are funding White-led organizations at nearly 40% more annually than POC-led organizations. With one exception, the foundations awarding the largest grants (of $100,000+) disproportionately funded White-led over POC-led organizations.

AVERAGE OPERATIONAL BUDGET

The average operational budget for POC-led organizations is a mere 3% of the operational budgets for White-led organizations. Put another way, White-led organizations received 97% more funding for general operating budgets than POC-led organizations. Almost all foundations reported higher general operating budgets for White-led organizations than those led by POC.

AVERAGE OPERATIONAL BUDGET FOR MULTIYEAR FUNDING

The average operational budget for multiyear funding showed disparities between White-led and POC-led organizations. On average across foundations, POC-led organizations received 0.8% of the multiyear operational budget grants, meaning White-led organizations received over 99% more funding than POC-led organizations. Foundations also reported funding twice as many multiyear grants to White-led organizations when compared to POC-led organizations. On average, foundations reported awarding 13.5 multiyear grants to POC-led organizations and 26.7 multiyear grants to White-led organizations. One foundation reported funding multi-year grants exclusively to White-led organizations and one foundation reported funding exclusively to POC-led organizations.

Of the foundations that report funding multiyear grants for both POC-led and White-led organizations, only one foundation reported funding 30% more grants to POC-led organizations (27 organizations) than White-led (19 organizations) although the amount of these grants were 48% of what White-led organizations received. Another foundation reported funding multiyear grants for 66% more White-led organizations (129 organizations) than POC-led (44 organizations).

RESULTS FOR FOUNDATIONS THAT COLLECT FUNDING DATA OF WHITE-LED AND POC-LED GRANTEES

Another foundation reported funding only one multiyear budget for both POC-led and White-led organizations, although budgets for White-led organizations were 99% higher than POC-led organizations. This was illustrated by a foundation that reported funding White-led (24 organizations) and POC-led organizations (23 organizations) at similar rates, but which granted less than 1% multiyear grants to organizations led by POC. A final foundation reported funding twice as many White-led organizations (six organizations) than POC-led (three organizations), with the size of grants awarded to POC-led organizations being less than 1% of the funding awarded to White-led organizations.

TYPES OF GRANTS AWARDED TO POC-LED GRANTEES

Foundations reported on the types of funding awarded to POC-led organizations. All foundations reported funding general operating (313 grantees total, 39 grantees average) and programmatic funding (280 grantees total, 35 grantees average) for their grantees of color. Only two reported funding capacity building (four grantees total, one grantee average) for their grantees led by POC. Three reported unrestricted funding for their grantees of color (a total of 67 grantees and average of 11 grantees).

CONCLUSION

In 2021, reporting foundations funded White-led organizations at nearly double the rate of POC-led organizations. Given that this is the first year that Green 2.0 has gathered relevant foundation data, it is impossible to be certain whether this pattern, though an obvious disparity, represents an increase in funding toward POC-led organizations. What is certain is that even the foundations that collect this data are susceptible to huge funding inequities between White-led and POC-led organizations; it is therefore troubling that many foundations do not collect this data at all.

Green 2.0 is grateful to the foundations that shared their demographic data with us for this report. Their transparency and willingness to engage in uncomfortable conversations is integral to creating systemic change.
